Who are the Tinkers Creek Watershed Partners?

The Tinkers Creek Watershed Partners formed from an alliance between the Tinkers Creek Land Conservancy and the Cuyahoga County Board of Health in 2005. We address current and future land use issues, initiate discussion regarding low-impact development practices, promote the economic value of natural resources, and educate communities on how to live in balance with their natural environment.

What Does My Membership Entail?

- Access to professional services
- A liaison between your business and regional, state, and federal agencies
- Assistance with natural resource concerns
- Performance of Public Involvement & Public Education (PIPE) requirements for Phase II Stormwater permits
- Water Quality Sampling
- Grant Writing
- Corporate Presentations

How Much Does it Cost to Become a Member?

One-year memberships are available for $250.

What Are the Benefits of Membership?

Members receive recognition in all of the Tinkers Creek Watershed Partners newsletters and publications, and on our website. In addition, members are invited to participate in TCWP board meetings as non-voting members. At these meetings, members will be able to meet our board of directors, and will learn about the latest issues affecting the Tinkers Creek watershed.

Membership in the Tinkers Creek Watershed Partners will assist your business or organization in being recognized as an active environmental steward.
